

Minutes for the MCR General Meeting on Monday 17th November 2014

Meeting begins at 7.30pm.

Committee Reports and Notices

Katy: There are still some locker keys left, so if you want one, email her.

Garreth: Everyone saw the email today. Go to the bop, it's going to be great! And click attending on facebook.

Jack and Yosi: Brunch was great, thanks for coming. Jack is filling in for Richard for the next couple of weeks as the male condom dispenser, so email him (or Katy) if you want any.

Damien: Accommodation issues are progressing, stay tuned for more news. College really wants everyone to get involved with the "switch off" campaign to save energy – see Facebook for more (we have the chance to win lots of ice cream!). It was brought up that the GSS survey should have a confidential section – what does everyone think?

Co-education event in 7th week

Ellie says bar party plans have now changed – no longer any dressing up, as it was thought that might put people off. Instead there will be a board in the bar where people can write down their memories of / what coeducation means to them.

Drinks are before the guest night on the Thursday, so members of the MCR can still go.

College have agreed to pay 1/3 of the drinks (the most expensive event). And they might also contribute to other events when Ellie asks them.

For: vast majority

MOTION PASSES

Newspaper motion

Basically, the newspapers are really expensive and we can't afford it.

Lizzie will put the cost of everything on the survey, so people can take that into account when they vote (i.e. getting the Time every day is much more expensive than getting a magazine once a month).

How do online subscriptions work? For the economist, we have a joint subscription for everyone. We have access to the FT through the university. The Times is cheap for individuals but would be expensive to get for many people.

Where are all the print copies? People probably take them out of the MCR. They might not always get picked up from the lodge.

We vote to completely cancel the subscriptions during the vacations.
